

Judy McDowell and I were real estate partners for 17 years. We worked very well together and had a successful partnership.

In September, 2008, my husband and I moved to Houston, Texas, and listed our house with Judy. As a Seller, instead of a Realtor, this put me on the “other side” of real estate; and in addition to all concerns Sellers have, I had concerns about leaving a vacant house.

But I had no reason to worry...

Judy treated our home as if it were her own. She constantly checked on the house, arranged for snow removal, carpet cleaners, etc. She held many, many open houses and followed up on every single Realtor showing. I never had to wonder how things were progressing because she was diligent about keeping me informed, right down to the last minute before closing.

I highly recommend Judy to anyone who is considering buying or selling. Her knowledge of Lincoln and the real estate process is unparalleled, and I'm confident your experience with Judy as your Realtor will be as worry-free as mine was.

Sincerely,

Linda S. Wagner

Judy was great! She showed us several homes through rain, shine, sleet and snow, snow and more snow. It was our last day of looking (as my husband and I were coming to the conclusion that our perfect home was just not on the market at that time, and we wanted to make a decision). I told Judy “we need to make a decision TODAY!” We looked at a few homes for a second time and Judy gave me a MLS sheet of a home that just came on the market that day. We went to the home, looked out the window with all the beautiful trees and said “this is the one!” Had Judy not done a quick check of the MLS that morning, we would have settled for another home that we just thought was okay. Judy was fun to work with, and I am thankful she took the extra step to find us a home we love, rather than a home we could just settle for. Thanks to Judy, we have lots of natural beauty and wildlife to enjoy!

Thanks!

Dear Woods Bros,

As first time homebuyers, we were apprehensive about the home buying process. We knew what we were looking for, and from watching HGTV, we knew what kind of person we would work well with. It seems that there are a lot of realtors that almost ‘tell’ you what you want, oftentimes playing a house up to make it into something that you should like. From our first experience with Judy, we felt so relaxed. She understood what we were looking for, and was so knowledgeable about the area. Judy really gave us the chance to form our own opinion about a home, while at the same time giving us input on the neighborhood, construction of the home and more.

After we found the perfect house for us, we still had tons of questions. Even when we thought that we had everything answered, something would pop up. Judy was so patient and knowledgeable; we knew that she was there for us. It seemed like she was always a step ahead of the game, always letting us know what the next steps were with the process. Anyone who has bought a home will tell you that little bumps will come up. We truly felt confident working with Judy, which alleviated a ton of stress!

We would recommend Judy to anyone we know. Her knowledge, demeanor and excitement for homebuyers make her a very special person.

Sincerely,

Katie & Troy Vigh

Judy was very professional in all of her dealings with us. She was always punctual and well prepared and knows the real estate market in Lincoln extensively. She walked us through every step of the process and beyond, so we are very grateful.

Judy has a very pleasant and positive attitude as well - we've used her services in purchasing two properties and have not been disappointed.
